Dr. James Nelson, president of the Wo-man's College has issued invitations to the Piano Recital which will be given by Miss Julie Geyer, of New York, on next Friday night, May 11th, in the College au-ditorium. Miss Geyer has spent several years abroad, studying under the best teachers, and the New Pork and London papers speak of her in a most flattering manner. Her stage presence is very at-tractive and her technique is remarkably fine in its clearness, its fluency and its certainty.

Her touch is musical and she plays with ease, finish and intelligence, her style is broad and free from affectation, her taste is pure and musicianly. It is said by leading critics that her chances for a bril-liant future are unquestionable and she gives more promise than any young plants: w before the public.

Work of Tax Assessors.

The tax assessors have completed assessments in Madison Ward. They will now assess the property in Monroe and now assess the property in monroe and Clay wards and Lee District.

There is no means of approximating what the new assessment will show. It is known that there will be a considerable falling off from the last assessment. But what the falling off will be is more guesswork than estimate at this time. One ottoewest made a day or two ago was statement made a day or two ago was that the new assessment would show a decrease of between $500,000 and $600,000. A city official, when this statement was repeated to him, expressed the opinion that the decrease would run up into seven figures.
